RESOURCES

We have developed a network of associates whose field of expertise has covered many assignments, and we can subsequently offer the client skills required by our clients.

CONTRACTUAL ARRANGEMENTS

We operate under a wide variety of contractual arrangements as required by the client, including:

- Stand-alone contract with the client
- Sub-contracting

INDEPENDENT TASK FORCE

We act as an independent task force and can therefore view the client's needs objectively without pre-conceived ideas. Furthermore we are not bound to use a specific manufacturer or equipment supplier and can therefore procure materials and equipment solely in accordance with the client's best interest.

CONCLUSION

We provide a complete service for the successful planning, design, construction, equipment and commissioning of all projects.

Using the expertise gained from previous assignments, we are able to anticipate problem areas and avoid any course of action, which will not prove viable.

Due to our daily growing experience, contacts and capacity, we are in a position to attract additional collaborators/clients in an eager effort to establish more capacity that can successfully deliver on any project within the context of our core competence.
